For over 15 years I've led design for growing companies in B2B SaaS, healthcare, fintech, enterprise cloud, security, consumer goods, and more, resulting in designs that secured millions in revenue, improved conversion rates by over 250%, and ranked at the top of analyst magic quadrants.

For 11 years I've led teams that built top-ranked SaaS products, where I implemented low-ego, high-collaboration, Lean UX processes. By ensuring that everyone is involved in the design process, I have improved team velocity by as much as 40% in Jira reports. My diverse leadership skills empower teams to deliver great products that customers love.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Partial Sabbatical / Side Work

June 2023 - Present

- Following broader layoffs which heavily impacted the design team, I took time to travel, improve my skills, and work on part-time projects.
- Began a full time project in January, but it was canceled in February.

Director of Product Design

November 2021 - May 2023

RxVantage (remote)

B2B SaaS startup connecting healthcare providers with treatment information.

- Oversaw design of a new mobile and desktop data dashboard that drove six-figure upsells of our enterprise life sciences manager product.
- Led user research that uncovered major issues with our top roadmap item, leading to a seven-figure revenue pivot by delivering the treatment information most important to health care providers and patients.
- Led new cross-functional, lean UX processes with engineering and product leadership and a new design system using Figma and Storybook which increased team velocity by over 25% in Jira reports.
- Organized, hired, managed, and mentored a diverse design team.

Lead Product Designer

July 2020 - October 2021

Very Good Security / VGS (remote)

B2B SaaS startup that secures critical financial data and optimizes payments.

- Led design and research for a new onboarding flow, increasing conversion of our fintech security Vault product by over 250%.
- Led the creation a new design system and a new look and feel with improved accessibility and visual design that customers loved.
- Designed and tested the MVP for the Payment Optimization product launch, driving millions of dollars in new revenue.
- Oversaw design updates for VGS Collect, a flexible payments UI builder.
- Managed a cross-functional team of product and brand designers.

User Experience Manager

April 2010 - July 2020

RightScale / Flexera (Santa Barbara, CA)

RightScale was a B2B SaaS startup with enterprise cloud governance and automation products acquired by IT portfolio company Flexera in 2018.

- Spearheaded the design of top-ranked enterprise cloud products in the 2019 Gartner and 2018 Forrester magic quadrant reports.
- Championed cross-functional UX practices with company leadership resulting in 40% velocity increases for both product and engineering.
